Dear Applicant

Thank you for your recent enquiry in respect of the above vacancy.

Having only been appointed as the new Headteacher since January of this year I am now looking to appoint staff to Paget who are passionate about teaching and have ambition to develop a career in education. It is an exciting time. We are 'rebooting' the school in September with a fresh vision that aims to put Paget at the heart of the community.

Paget serves a very mixed culturally diverse area with pupils from all faiths and backgrounds. Parental turnout at the three parents' evenings this half term has averaged 80% so the school is well supported. The students behave well and work hard. I say this with the utmost confidence having successfully been at the helm of a team in a previous school where we moved from inadequate to good. Key to that success was staff who didn't just bring their minds to the table but also brought their hearts. Bruce Springsteen sums up quite perfectly the kind of staff I'm looking for:

"When it's a good match your heart ends up thrown in too. It's not just business, it's personal. When you came to work for me, I had to be assured you'd bring your heart. Heart sealed the deal."

So, do you think you'd be a good match for Paget and are you prepared to bring not just your mind and talent but your heart? If so please find below an application form and recruitment pack setting out the duties and responsibilities of the post, which I hope you will find helpful. Notes of Guidance have been included in this pack to assist you when completing your application form. If you have any supporting documentation that demonstrates how you meet the person specifications please include this with your form.

Please note to be considered for this post you must fully complete the application form and recruitment monitoring form and return it to me by the closing date. References will be sought for shortlisted candidates before the day of the interview.

If you require any further clarification or information relating to this post please do not hesitate to contact Mrs B Tunnicliffe, Office Manager.

Yours sincerely

Ian Brierly
